

EMOJI BINGO

Make talking about your feelings fun by playing Emoji Bingo!

STEP 1. Cut out the emoji section on this page, and make copies. This is what you'll use to make your Bingo boards.

STEP 2. Paste the emojis onto old Bingo boards you already have, or print out Bingo templates from online. You can have your students help. Just be sure to place the emojis randomly on the boards.

STEP 3. Create a master set of ALL the emojis. We recommend laminating them. Put them into a jar to draw from.

STEP 4. Hand out the Bingo boards to your students, and give them little beans or other small items to mark the emojis off.

STEP 5. Have students take turns, drawing an emoji card from the jar. As they draw it and call it out to the class, take a moment to reflect. Have the student discuss the specific emotion and give a scenario of when they've felt this way. You might want to prompt them on how they've dealt with this emotion, too.

STEP 6. Keep playing Emoji Bingo until someone wins. Then clear the cards and start again. This is a great game to play over and over again because each student will view or talk about an emotion a little differently.
